A blissful dining experience

Imagine crisp line table cloth, fine Chinaware, servers who know you so well, and a culinary team ready to make sure your dining experience is as good as your favorite restaurant. It is not the typical food mess that you find in retirement communities. This is fresh, made-to-order dining in a multi-cuisine restaurant!

The restaurant kitchen is overseen by highly qualified chefs, who have vast and diverse experience in various hotels, resorts and in cruise liners all over the world. Our speciality is fulfilling your taste buds by understanding your expectations.

"We have seen other retirement communities but we were attracted to Anandam because it is totally unique. It is pollution free and away from the city life. The hospitality is amazing and we feel very good when we go there. The management of the place is very professional and i don't think anything like this exists anywhere in the country."

Mrs. & Mr. Jaganmohan

MD (Rtd) Air Liquide Medical

"What seniors require is a pollution free environment, good facilities, good connectivity and courteous service. I find all this at Anandam. The staff is very helpful and courteous compared to other senior citizen communities. The facilities here are much better. The open space is very important to us as we like walking and relaxing. The climate is very good. It is neither too hot not too cold."
